

Privacy Statement

"Kinghorn Insurance of Beaufort" has always been committed to ensuring the confidentiality of the information it receives. Recently, Congress enacted the Financial Services Modernization Act, which requires that certain companies, including insurance agencies, inform their customers how personal information is collected or disclosed.

"Kinghorn Insurance of Beaufort" maintains physical and electronic safeguards to protect the information we acquire, including restricting access about you to employees who need to know that information to provide you with products or to provide you with benefits or services we feel would be useful to our clients. We periodically review and test our systems to assess the strength of our security precautions. The following notice is the "Kinghorn Insurance of Beaufort" Privacy Policy.

Our Privacy Policies and Practices

We do not sell client information for any reason whatsoever.

We may collect non-public personal information about you from the following sources:

- information we receive from you on application or other forms;
- information about your transactions with us; and
- information we receive from a consumer reporting agency

We will not disclose non-public personal information about you to others unless the disclosure is necessary to conduct our business and is permitted by law.

We thank you for the confidence you have placed in us and are committed to protecting your privacy and confidentiality.
